

Yeah he said that. I think he used to education policy before we got Matt so maybe that's how he first got invited.

Hmmm. Makes sense.

I don't think I could have cold Wendy on it

Sold

I'd rather work w mike.

Well next time.

Well now you will work with Kody

You have to tell them you want to "grow your understanding" of a certain issue.

And I think they want you to grow.

Kody?

He's our new education policy advisor

He used to work for the board of regents

I see. What happened to Matt?

I see

He went to the Charter Schools

So we had to find someone quickly

I'm glad he is bye bye.

Wait did I say that out loud ?

Don't repeat.

LOL I would never. What didn't you like about him

He thinks he knows it all.

He doesn't.

We will see if Kody is more humble

We will see if Rudy is more honorable

So I would not work thru him. Some guys think that if they act like they are right all the time and they know it all, some how they will.

The thing is that Matt was also doing what some Lobbyist fed him to do.

The Secret! Think it and it will come true!

So I did not trust.

Lol

That's actually not wrong.

Yes I think it's best he went to lobbying because that's his forte

On face value

He is a good guy. Don't get me wrong.

I like him. I just trust very seldom.

No I agree too. I liked Matt. But I understand what you're saying. I would never share with anyone what you tell me.

I appreciate it.

It's hard to trust anyone in this business. Especially now days you know.

Yes I get it. People act like they are in high school.

So true. So true

Are you sitting in coach?

Of course. :)

Window I hope

If you are a politician, never sit anything other.

Not middle

I like aisle

I could accept aisle

In the way back they have me middle. Arg

Gross

Lol

So why only fly coach the

Then

I'll work my magic and hopefully get it changed.

Because when people recognize or press sees or hears that you are flying "upper" class no bueno.

ooooh

Yes

They say you either do it on taxpayer dollars or special treatment... bad optics you know.

Not wrong at all. Just not smart or prudent.

Yes I see what you mean

We r going wheels up.

Nice. Hopefully the next leg goes quickly

Enjoy the perfect weather. :)

Agreed.

Sooo nice. Like San Diego

No one is in my middle seat so yeah...

Sure is.

Oh maybe you'll have some extra room

Did you end up with nobody next to you

What hotel are you staying at

Let me look up the Omni

Very cool! You should have selfied with him

Lol. Didn't come to me.

 it's always the right time to selfie

Haha

Listening to Betsy Devos now.

How's that

It's actually nice.

Do you get a lunch break

We just had lunch. It's a conference lunch. So work they

I asked for the veggie option. :)

Did they feed you chicken ?

I'm not a big meat eater. Not a vegetarian, just don't eat much meat.

Very nice. Keeping it healthy

Agreed

Nothing wrong with that.

You have a sec? I have a question re a tweet.

Sure. What's up?

Can you call me?

Yeah

It's crazy stuff happening.

Thank you.

Did someone call you out?

Nope

Are you afraid someone might?

Just lining my ducks in order.

Nope

Yeah you would never ever have to worry about me.

So I hope that puts you at some ease
