I need access to the MSDN developers network. This is Microsoft's software developers network. Someone in the Maricopa County IT department likely already has a subscription to this network. It would cost me 6K to rejoin the network, and I don't have the funds. Would someone check if they have access to MSDN, and if so, could I get the username and password so I can download the development tools I need.

There is nothing to take from the MSDN developers network that would hurt them. I am just after the latest libraries, and everything thing I download they would see.

Have not heard from him since 23rd. I guess I will know soon enough if I get my power or water turned off.

FOX never froze your story Dennis, YOU DID.

The day we met I told you any story hinged on the data. On tape you described the data and said you would produce it and said you were prepared to face the music for having kept the drives.

I reiterated repeatedly that day that it was up to you to produce the data and you repeatedly said you understood.

By December it was clear you were not producing and not being honest. I reiterated the need for data and you re-promised.

In January you admitted you never intended to produce what you'd promise because of the potential criminal charges. Face it, you have been lying about lots of things

I was not surprised when Blixseth called me from Az and put Arpaio on the phone with me in January and deputies began calling soon after. I was not surprised when other reporters were contacted about you and I'm not surprised that your story is coming out and you are not part of it. I am surprised that you think AZ can help you. I am surprised that you keep deluding yourself and trying to blame me for your own unwillingness to keep your word. I am surprised that a guy as smart as you, who insists "data trumps rhetoric" would keep insulting my intelligence with empty rhetoric instead of the data you promised for months.

Brian,

Good morning!

Kirk Wiebe and I are providing you a summary (attached) of our data and information analysis of alleged "key data" designed to prove the source's case.

We have found that he is a complete and total FRAUD.

All he has done is provide you with readily available lists of email addresses, names, phone number of both individuals and businesses and a lot of framed up information, data and code BUT NO PROOF OF WHENCE THEY CAME and a whole lot of faked and made up documents and analysis.

I also find offensive your implication that I would not fully inform the Judge Lamberth if things do not pan out. But you have not shown that Dennis had lied in any way and your approach is a heavy handed one calculated to put pressure on me to pressure him. Your creating a written record which could be subject to discovery is plain stupid, period, at this point. It will harm you if Dennis produces the information you seek. And, there is no rush in going to Lamberth now. He can simply be put on hold. To do so, if simply to harm Dennis -- plain and simple -- and pressure him, and lacks any rational basis AT THIS TIME.

Brian, I respect you and Mike and of course the Sheriff. But your actions -- that means you Brian -- are irresponsible and crass. If you know anything about me, I don't roll over to this type of conduct.

Just want to point out a few things. It does not surprise me that you called the Sheriff. Don't really know what you were trying to prove but all it did was show your true colors. I am in charge of this investigation and have the authority to do what I feel is right and is necessary for the best interest of the Maricopa County Sheriffs Office and the Sheriff. I was not on the phone today but Mike was not happy with the way you threatened him. So from now on all communication will be through me in reference to this investigation. And since there is a major issues regarding Dennis Montgomery credibility I sure hope you do not plan on mentioning him or make reference to him in regards to your oral argument tomorrow. I will have no problem obtaining the transcripts and contacting the presiding judge personally.

Contrary to your belief I have no interest in blowing this case up Larry, I just want the games to end and for Dennis to be honest.

If the software program Dennis made truly works then let's see it. If not he needs to come clean. The excuses are getting old.

Oh bye the way the Sheriff wants an update on Wednesday at 1600 hours. Hope you can talk some sense into Dennis between now and then.
