Hoytee,

I know you have instructed me to communicate directly through Scott and I will continue to do so. I just wanted to reach out to you on a personal basis and apologize for what has transpired. Please know that it has not been ill-intentioned. I assume the responsibility, as being head of the business I am ultimately responsible for everything. I am embarrassed and ashamed for what happened and want you to know that I will see this through until the last item is delivered and installed. I will also make it up to you and compensate you however you see fit. I am not looking for you to respond to this message. I just want to sincerely apologize directly to you because of all you have done for me and my family. Please know that I deeply regret putting you in this situation and that I will come through for you.

Sincerely,
David
